

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

daeuArt Gallery to Participate in Artexpo New York

The gallery's booth (#S604) will present works by multi-talented visual artist Daeu daeuArt Gallery is pleased to participate in Artexpo New York 2024, for the first time. The gallery's booth (#S604) will feature captivating and intellectually stimulating pieces by Daeu Angert, including original oil paintings and limited edition prints. In addition to its exhibition, daeuArt Gallery will host special events and artist meet-and-greets throughout the duration of the fair, offering attendees a chance to connect directly with the artist, gain insights into her artistic process, and potentially acquire exceptional artworks.

Highlighted in our booth is Angert's original oil painting, "Multipotentialite," showcasing her distinctive visual style honed over decades. Originally part of Angert's Diary Collection and featured in her solo exhibit, While Waiting For The World to Catch Up, in New York last year, "Multipotentialite" delves into the personal journey of being a multipotentialite. This term refers to individuals exceptionally skilled in multiple areas, navigating society's pressure to choose just one path. With its bold colors and determined strokes, the painting encapsulates the human struggle for identity and purpose in a world that favors singular paths. Angert's mastery of oil painting is evident in this artwork's rich texture and depth, inviting viewers to reflect on their own aspirations. Its inclusion in the gallery's showcase at Artexpo is expected to captivate audiences, igniting conversations about creativity, ambition, and societal expectations.

The gallery will also release a number of limited edition, signed fine art prints based on Angert's original oil paintings to coincide with the fair in variety of mediums and sizes. These will include Angert's Indra's Net, The Breath, La Paloma, Wrinkle In A Dream Sequence, Formless, and The Lost Artist.
